

I do not support K-LOVE radio to be displaced by an LPFM broadcaster to provide alternative programming. The music and broadcasting messages are healthy for today's children and society and for my community . There aren't enough radio stations with standards and teaching children how to be good citizens. My family and I enjoy this family-friendly programming and it is in the best interest of our public to leave it alone!